

Birmingham Incentives At a Glance

For an easy, cost-effective start-up, we offer:

- ✓ The abatement of the non-education portion of a company's sales tax on the purchase of construction materials for new building.
- ✓ The abatement of the non-education portion of a company's use tax on the purchase of manufacturing equipment.
- ✓ A State site preparation grant program to reduce site development costs.
- ✓ Personal assistance to secure all business, construction, and environmental permits.
- ✓ Free employee recruiting, screening, and training to ensure the appropriate labor mix for a quick and productive start-up through Alabama Industrial Development Training (AIDT).
- ✓ Temporary office space at below market rates with the necessary business services.
- ✓ A customized program for relocating executives and key personnel.
- ✓ Various building occupancy alternatives, including purchase, lease, and lease-purchase options.
- ✓ Assistance with a thorough evaluation of all finance options, including industrial revenue bonds which offers long-term financing at (or below) prime, as well as all other federal, state and private funding options.

For continued operational savings, we offer:

- ✓
 - ✓ The abatement of the non-education portion of a company's ad valorem taxes on real property for up to 10 years.
 - ✓ The abatement of the non-education portion of a company's ad valorem taxes on personal property for up to 10 years.
 - ✓ An annual corporate income tax credit up to 5% of a company's capital investment for 20 years for qualified projects.
-